

MGO GLOBAL INC.
External Communications Policy
Effective January 1, 2023

INTRODUCTION

This External Communications Policy (the “Policy”) sets forth the policies of MGO Global Inc. (the “Company”) regarding how Company representatives may communicate with outside parties (“Third Parties”), particularly members of the press, securities market professionals and those who may own or trade in our shares of Common Stock traded on the Nasdaq Capital Market under symbol “MGOL.” Capitalized terms used in this Policy have the meanings set forth in the section titled “Key Terms” appearing at the end of this document.

This Policy applies to all Company employees, directors, officers, consultants and contractors. Any violation of this Policy should be brought to the attention of the Company’s Director of Communications, Dodi Handy, dhandy@mgoteam.com or 407-960-4636; and may constitute grounds for termination of employment.

GENERAL POLICY

It is the Company’s policy that all its communications with Third Parties comply with applicable law, and that Material, Non-Public Information (“MNPI”) of the Company be publicly disseminated in a non-exclusionary and non-selective way. Only an Authorized Spokesperson may engage in discussions about the Company with Third Parties who have been carefully vetted in advance of the discussion. No other individual is authorized to speak on behalf of the Company. Any other Insider who is contacted by a Third Party must refer the Third Party to the Company’s Director of Communications for immediate follow-up, as appropriate.

Specifically, no Insider, other than an Authorized Spokesperson, may communicate MNPI of the Company to a Third Party. An Authorized Spokesperson may only provide MNPI to a Third Party if such information has been previously or simultaneously publicly disseminated. This will typically be in the form of a press release or SEC filing that is fully accessible to the general public.

Occasionally, employees may be contacted by outside sources or the media requesting information about the Company or its employees, directors, officers or operations. In order to avoid providing inaccurate, incomplete or Material information to outside sources, all outside inquiries regarding the Company or its employees, directors, officers or operations must immediately inform the Director of Communications, who, in turn, may consult with the Company’s CEO, CFO and/or legal department as to whether prompt public dissemination of this information is required. If required, the information must be Publicly Disseminated within 24 hours of the inadvertent disclosure.

An Authorized Spokesperson may not depart from the principles set forth in this Policy without explicit prior approval of the Company’s Chief Executive Officer or Chief Financial Officer.

FINANCIAL INFORMATION

No Insider may provide “guidance” to Third Parties on a selective basis, directly or indirectly, and may not disclose to Third Parties any information regarding the Company’s internal projections of future operating results, business transactions, customer or supplier developments or other Material Information that has not been publicly disseminated, either in a press release, SEC filing or other appropriate method.

ANALYST INFORMATION

Except as set forth below, no Insider may review analysts' reports prior to their being published, send analysts' reports to investors or prospective investors, comment on any analyst's model, provide analyst's phone numbers for people to call them directly, endorse or ratify revenue or earnings projections made by an analyst, or express comfort or disagreement with "the range" or how the analysts arrived at their estimates. An Authorized Spokesperson may, however, review an analyst report solely for the purpose of confirming or correcting publicly disseminated information that may be contained in such analyst report.

PRESS RELEASES

The Company will issue press releases from time to time to disclose information that is important or of use to the public. Press releases will be prepared and reviewed in accordance with the Company's established practices, including review by the Company's auditors and counsel, if/when appropriate. Press releases will be approved by and issued under the supervision of the Chief Executive Officer and Director of Communications.

PRODUCT AND COMPANY INFORMATION

No Insider shall disclose to Third Parties any MNPI regarding the Company or its products and services.

COMPETITOR INFORMATION

No Insider shall discuss financial or operational information about competitors. An Authorized Spokesperson should say that the Company does not comment about its competitors and suggest that the Third Party call the competitor directly. An Authorized Spokesperson may discuss market share figures and facts from competitors' earnings announcements.

RUMORS

No Insider may comment on rumors. An Authorized Spokesperson is permitted to state that the Company has a policy against commenting on rumors.

INDIRECT COMMUNICATIONS; CHAT ROOMS; OTHER ELECTRONIC COMMUNICATIONS METHODS

Any communication that would constitute a violation of this Policy if made directly by an Insider to a Third Party shall also constitute a violation if made indirectly to a Third Party. No Insider shall contribute to or participate in "chat rooms" or similar online forums or use Other Electronic Communications Methods (as defined below) with respect to our Company or companies engaged in business with the Company to the extent any such information regarding the Company or any other party is gained as a result of the Insider's relationship with the Company or any other Insider.

The posts in these forums may contain misleading or unsubstantiated information and may be made by unsophisticated investors who are poorly informed. Accordingly, no Insider may discuss the Company or Company-related information in such a forum. Posts in these forums can result in the disclosure of Material Non-Public Information and may bring significant legal and financial risk to the Company and are therefore prohibited. Any use of chat rooms or Other Electronic Communications Methods, including blogs or social media sites, must be in strict compliance with this Policy.

KEY TERMS

As used in this Policy, the following terms have the following meanings:

- “Authorized Spokesperson” means the Chief Executive Officer, Chief Financial Officer, Chief Design Officer, Chief Operating Officer, Director of Communications, Investor Relations firm representatives, Public Relations firm representatives or any other person(s) performing similar functions.
- “Insider” means an employee, officer, director, consultant or contractor of the Company. All Insiders subject to this Policy are also subject to the Company’s Insider Trading Policy, which can be found on the Company’s website.
- “Material Information”: It is not possible to define all categories of material information. However, information should be regarded as material if there is a reasonable likelihood that it would be considered important to an investor in making an investment decision regarding the purchase or sale of the Company’s securities.
- While it may be difficult under this standard to determine whether particular information is material, there are various categories of information that are particularly sensitive and, as a general rule, should always be considered material. Examples of such information may include:
  - Significant corporate events, such as a pending or proposed merger, joint venture or tender offer, a sign investment, the acquisition or disposition of a significant business or asset or a change in control of the Company
  - Financial results, financial condition, earnings pre-announcements, projections or forecasts
  - Restatements of financial results or material impairments, write-offs or restructurings
  - Changes in independent auditors or changes in reliance on certain audit report
  - Business plans or budgets
  - Creation of significant financial obligations or significant changes in financial obligation
  - Impending bankruptcy or financial liquidity problems
  - Significant developments involving business relationships
  - Product/service announcements of a significant nature
  - Significant developments in research and development or relating to intellectual property
  - Significant legal or regulatory developments, whether actual or threatened
  - Major events involving the Company’s securities
  - Significant corporate events, such as a pending or proposed merger, joint venture or tender offer, a sign investment, the acquisition or disposition of a significant business or asset or a change in control of the Company
  - Major personnel changes
- Either positive or negative information may be material.
- “Non-Public Information” means information that has not been publicly disseminated and is otherwise not available to the general public.
- “Other Electronic Communications Methods” means blogs, electronic mail messaging, text messaging, audio messaging or video messaging; social media site or website comments; or other communications using messaging systems embedded in software applications (such as LinkedIn In-mail or Facebook Messenger) whether or not viewers of the communications are the general public, or a limited group of individuals granted rights to view the information.

- "Publicly disseminated" means that information has been made available through the distribution of a press release through a widely disseminated news or wire service, by filing a Form 8-K, or by another non-exclusionary method of disclosure that is reasonably designed to provide broad public access -- such as an announcement at a conference of which the public had adequate notice and to which the public was granted access, either by personal attendance, or telephonic or electronic access. Notably, information is generally not considered to be publicly disseminated if it has only been posted to the Company's website.
- "Third Party" means securities market professionals (including, but not limited to, analysts, broker-dealers, investment advisers and fund managers), existing or prospective shareholders (including anyone who may be reasonably expected to trade on the basis of MNPI), reporters or other members of the media community and any other party who is not bound by a duty of confidentiality to the Company.

####